injury to the parties
To the 7th. Int. The property is now in such a condition that none of the heirs can get any benefit from it and the interest on the money it would bring if sold and the money divided would be more than the land would yield if cultivated

Frances J. Hopwood, a witness of lawful age produced on the part of the Complainants being duly sworn and examined to Interrogatories filed with the Commissioners by the Complainants and herewith returned deposes and says
To the 1st. Int. I know the parties to this suit and have known them for some time some years
To the 2d. Int. I knew Henry Remsburg in his life. He is dead. He died in Frederick County, some ten or eleven years ago in 1866 I think
To the 3d. Int. He left a widow. Her name is Elizabeth Remsburg. She resides in Frederick County. She is very old About Eighty years old
To the 4th Int. Henry Remsburg left Children surviving him as follows: A son William O Remsburg who is married, and the name of whose wife is Eliza Remsburg, both are adults and reside in Washington County Maryland, A son Vinian H. Remsburg who is married, and the name of whose wife is Sophia Remsburg, both adults, and reside in the State of Ohio. A daughter Lydia A. Remsburg, now the wife of Daniel Remsburg, both adults, and live in Frederick County, Maryland, A daughter Georgiana L. now the wife of William E. Smith, both adults, and resides in Frederick County, A daughter Catharine A. C. now the wife of Francis J. Hopwood the Defendant, both adults, and resides in Frederick County. A son Charles T. Remsburg, who is married, and the name of whose wife is Margaret R. Remsburg both adults and reside in Frederick County, A Daughter Adeline who is dead. She died about the year A.D. 1874. leaving surviving her a husband John W Remsburg, who is an adult and resides in Frederick County, and the following Children, to wit: A son Morgan H. Remsburg, an adult, unmarried and resides in Frederick County, Maryland, A son George E. Remsburg an adult, unmarried and resides in the State of Texas. A daughter Anna Remsburg who is under twenty one years of age, unmarried and resides in Frederick County. A son Tommy who is under twenty one years of age, unmarried and resides in Frederick County. A daughter Elizabeth R. Remsburg, who is under twenty one years of age, unmarried and lives in Frederick County, The husband said John W. Remsburg, I think is over sixty years of age
To the 5th. Int. The said Henry Remsburg was seized and possessed of real estate situated in Frederick County. It is a lot adjoining the town of Middletown containing about three acres of land bought by Henry Remsburg of Josiah Remsburg executor of Henry Lighter Exhibit No 1. describes the said real estate. The Will of said Henry Remsburg of which Exhibit No 2. is a certified copy does not dispose of the lot described in Exhibit No 1.