to where the woods was and there, the next road he cut would fit exactly.
9th. C. Int: Was Mr. Sefton a good practical hand in hauling wood from mountain lots?
Ans: Yes, he was a good hand if he wanted to do it.
10th. C. Int: When you hauled their wood from the mountain, where did you haul it to?
Ans: To different places - To Maesche's brick kiln to Maesche's house, to his shop and to his hands. Sefton hauled three or four loads to his house where he was living at the time. I hauled two loads to Tom Smothers, a black fellow. I think I hauled Bill Webb some. I dont recollect how much. All this wood came from the Ranger lot.

1st. Int: State your name, age and present place of residence?
Ans: Frederick White, aged 52 years. I reside in Mechanicstown, Frederick County, Md.
2d. Int: Are you acquainted with the parties to this cause? If yea, how long have you known them and each of them?
Ans: I have known them all for some years. John W. Sefton is my brother-in-law and William Sefton is my father in law.
3d. Int: Had you any conversation with Maesche in reference to the contract to build a house for John W. Sefton? And, if yea, state what was said on that occasion and when the same occurred?
Ans: The conversation was on the day that John W. Sefton was moving into the new house. Maesche, John W. Sefton and deponent were present. Sefton said the Maesche was to build the house according to a specification or book which he had of good materials and in a workmanlike manner, and put a finish the whole length of the house in front and finish it complete for $1750.00, except the foundation which Sefton was to put up. Maesche said, that Sefton was to do the plastering. Maesche admitted that that was the contract, except that John W. Sefton was to do the plastering.
4th. Int: Was anything said in that conversation about Maesche being indebted to Sefton for hauling or?: And, if yea, state all that was said upon the subject referred to?
Ans: John W. Sefton said to him, "You were to give me hauling for the price of putting up the building and you have given hauling to others." Maesche's reply was, "I wont give you any more hauling until you settle." Sefton in reply said he could see his bill at any day or time he would call.
5th. Int: Was any thing said by Maesche about the contract of hauling. What amount of hauling Sefton was to do or?: And if
