42) "Is "Exhibit "A" herewith filed a true copy of the account against Waesche Bro & Co, as charged in your book?
State all your knowledge herein?
Ans. Yes Sir; Mr. White drawed it off. And I read off the charges
43d Int. Did you ever haul any wood off the Rouzer Lot to your House for your own use? and if yea, state why the same was done and all your knowledge herein?
Ans. Yes, Sir; I was coming from Rouzer's Wood Lot one day, it was raining in the evening, and I was out of wood, I hauled one load home to my wood pile, & hauled Waesche Bro. & Co. one load from my Father's Lot, in return for it and never charged Waesche for it. That was all the wood I ever hauled from Rouzer's Lot for my own use.

In Cross Int'ns filed with the Commissioner by the Complainants and herewith returned, the said John W. Sefton deposes and says to the 1st C. Int. When was the contract between you & Waesche for the building of the House spoken of made?
Ans. In front of Col. Rouzer's House in McKaniestown Frederick County Md.
2d C. Int. When was said Contract made?
Ans. Some time in February 1871.
3d C. Int. Without mentioning the Firm of Waesche Bro & Co, did you make your Contract?
Ans. With L. R. Waesche
4 C. Int. Was any other member of the Firm present?
Ans. No. Sir.
5th C. Int. Did you you ever communicate to any other member of the Firm, the Contract you had made or any agreement relating to the building of said House or the mode of Payment to be made therefor?
Ans. No Sir, I never did.
6 C. Int. Had you and L. R. Waesche had any talk about the building of the House prior to the time when you made the Contract?
Ans. We had some talk about the House, and about the plan & what it would cost.
7th C. Int. On your first conversation with Waesche in regard to the House and his reply as to the cost thereof, was the Cellar and Foundation included in the estimate?
Ans. I dont recollect how about that. The first talk we had about it, was the whole Entire House, Foundation and Cellar included, and as near as I recollect he had the price about $2,000.
8th C. Int. You say he had the price then about $2,000. Do you recollect the exact sum he had it?
Ans. That was about the price.
9th C. Int. Did he make an estimate of it, the Lumber and other materials it would take, and then arrive at the sum?
Ans. Yes Sir.
10th C. Int. Was that estimate made on paper, or in a Book?
Ans. I dont know I dont recollect.
11th C. Int. When did you see the estimate?
