in the former?
Ans: The only reason I could give for it was that I hauled two loads a day. It was from the far end of the job and had to get it.
73d. C. Int: If you were hauling by the day, what difference did it make to you, if you hauled two, or three loads?
Ans: It didn't make any difference.
74th. C. Int: What then induced you to indicate on your account, when you only hauled two loads or four cords.
Ans: To show that I made two loads. I couldn't get any more made.
75th. C. Int: Why did you want that to appear on the account, if you were hauling by the day?
Ans: So that when we come to settle, I could explain why I hauled two loads.
76th. C. Int: Then where not designated as to the number of loads, you hauled three loads. Is this so?
Ans: Yes sir.
77th. C. Int: Was not this method of designation adopted in order to show the number of cords hauled?
Ans: No Sir.
78th. C. Int: When you hauled three loads per day, how many cords did you haul at a load?
Ans: Well we hauled, as near as we could get at it, two cords every load.
79th. C. Int: Did you haul any wood for other persons, from the Ronzio lot?
Ans: No Sir.
80th. C. Int: Did you haul any wood for Henry Weigle for which he settled, or was to settle the hauling?
Ans: I hauled Henry Weigle wood.
81st. C. Int: From what place to what place?
(Excepted to.)
Ans: From Meilright's lot to Weigels' Kiln and I hauled some from my father's lot to Weigels. It was my own wood.
82d. C. Int: Was any lot from which you hauled for Weigel, in vicinity of the Ronzio lot?
Ans: No Sir.
83d. C. Int: Did you required your driver to keep an account of the number of cords of wood hauled? Ans: No Sir.
84th. C. Int: Are you an expert either as a Carpenter, or painter?
I know something about painting and carpentering. I am a mechanic.
85th. C. Int: What is your trade as a mechanic?
Ans: Wheelright and Coach-making.

Whereupon, the said Commission was, by agreement, adjourned to the 31st day of August, Eighteen hundred and Seventy five, at which time and at the place aforesaid, and in the presence of the Solicitors of the Complainants, and, I, then and there, Proceeded to take the following
