And if this are you cannot tell this size is this so?
Ans: That is so.
49th. C. Int: In the calculation which you have made as to the value of the material comprised in the 8717 feet at 25¢ have you assumed the sills, studding, plates, posts and other frame work were hemlock?
Ans: I have.
50th. C. Int: Then, if these last named articles are not of hemlock, is your calculation correct as to its value?
Ans: If it is pine, it will be worth more than hemlock.

Whereupon, the said Commission was, by agreement adjourned to the 4th. day of September A.D. 1875, at which time and at the place aforesaid, I then and there, proceeded in the presence of the Solicitors for the Complainant and Defendant, to take the following depositions, to wit:
51st. C. Int: In the construction of a building, is there, or not, a considerable waste of lumber?
Ans: No Sir.
52d. C. Int: Can you buy lumber of the precise length required, in all cases, or are there certain standard lengths in which boards and building lumber are bought?
Ans: There are certain standard lengths in which building lumber is bought, unless you order it from the mill, where you can get any length you want.
53d. C. Int: When you order it the length you desire, can you buy at the same rates, as if you take standard lengths?
Ans: No Sir.
54th. C. Int: Do you pay more per foot, or less per foot?
Ans: More.
55th. C. Int: In the estimate you have made, have you taken prices at standard lengths?
Ans: Yes Sir.
56th. C. Int: Have you made any allowance for the waste of material?
Ans: Yes Sir.
57th. C. Int: How and what?
Ans: In the standard bills you buy joists 14, 16 or 18 feet. I called them 18 feet when the building only required 17 feet.
58th. C. Int: Have you been in the habit of purchasing lumber and building material in Mechanicstown?
Ans: No Sir.
59th. C. Int: Have you ever purchased lumber and building material in Mechanicstown.
Ans: Not from Mechanicstown, but I have purchased lumber delivered at Mechanicstown during the last two years.
60th. C Int: At what place is the lumber purchased which you speak of as delivered at Mechanicstown?
Ans: Williamsport and Lockhaven, Pennsylvania.
61st. C. Int: Are the prices you affixed to the material in the building what
