I do. I look at Exhibit No. 1 now here shown me. It is The said real estate cannot be divided amongst the parties interested without loss & injury, as it consists of a house, and lot, in Sabillasville, of about one third of an acre of land, which cannot be divided.

7th Int.

It would be for the benefit and advantage of all parties interested infants as well as adults, that said real estate should be sold, and the proceeds thereof be distributed among the parties entitled, for the reason stated in my answer to the last preceding interrogatory, and because the said property is now unimproved, and is daily depreciating in value, is very much out of repair, & there is no particular person to repair and take care of the property, and because it will have to be sold to satisfy "Exhibit No 2" filed in this case.

8th Int.

I was. Nobody was present, but George Harbaugh, J. H. P. Baker and myself, when the deed was executed. Four hundred and eighty five dollars (485$) was paid for said lot. Lemuel Harbaugh, George Harbaugh and Simon W Harbaugh, each paid an equal proportion of two hundred and fifty dollars (250$).

9th Int.

Yes Sir. Two hundred and seventy five dollars (275$) was borrowed from "the Fredericktown Savings Institution" by the heirs of Lemuel Harbaugh, to purchase the said property.

10th Int.

I look at "Exhibit No. 2", now here shown me. I am acquainted with the handwritings of all of them. I have frequently seen them write, and the signatures of the makers of said note attached thereto are in their own proper handwritings.

11th Int.

It was. By the heirs of Lemuel Harbaugh. It was paid on the said property described in "Exhibit No. 1" The borrowed the money for the purpose of paying the balance of the purchase money.
