$4753.72, with interest from August 1878 Two of the notes are unpaid.

10th Int.

It would be for the benefit & advantage of the infants as well as for all the other parties interested, that said real estate should be sold, and the proceeds thereof distributed amongst the parties entitled There is a Mortgage of about $500 on said real estate, which must be paid & it will be an advantage to sell the farm and pay off the Mortgage debt and also to pay Edgar A. Collins who is an adult his proportion of the money. The Mortgage is now due. The children have no other means of support, but what they will receive from this farm. The farm is now under rent and the rent received will not leave a support for the said children, after paying the taxes, and interest on the Mortgage debt. If the property remains under rent, it will depreciate in value. The fencing is greatly out of repair and there is no timber belonging to the parties with which to make the fencing. The proceeds of sale if judiciously invested will yield to the infant children much more clear income than they can receive from the rent.

11th Int.

I know nothing further.
