Peter Hauver's Testimony

To 1st Int — I know all the parties and have known them for some years.

To 2d Int. — I was acquainted with David Wolf Jr. He is dead. He died in Fox-ville Frederick County, Maryland, about the year A. D. 1860.

To 3d Int. — He was seized and possessed of Real Estate at the time of his death. It is a farm situated in Frederick County, State of Maryland. I look at the papers now shown me, marked Exhibits 1, 2 and 3. Exhibit No. 1 contains a correct description of the land owned by David Wolf Jr. He sold during his lifetime the land described in Exhibits Nos 2 and 3. And I think he also sold another part of land described in Exhibit No. 1 to a man by the name of Swope. I heard some body say this but dont know whether it is true or not. The balance of the land described in Exhibit No. 1 said David Wolf Jr. was seized and possessed of at the time of his death. I know he also died seized and possessed of a Mountain lot but whether its the land described in Exhibit No. 4, I do not know.

To 4th Int. — David Wolf left a widow surviving him. Her name is Catharine Wolf. She resides on the farm in Frederick County State of Maryland. She is fifty some years old. She is over fifty years of age, and in good health.

She is an adult, unmarried and resides in Frederick County Maryland. A daughter Adeline V. Wolf. She is an infant, unmarried, and lives in Frederick County, Maryland. A son Hiram A. Wolf who is married and the name of whose wife is Mary Wolf. They are adults and residents in Frederick County State of Maryland.
