No. 1802 Equity (Supplemental)

fendants claim as heirs

Your respondents admit that Charles Johnson as Trustee sold portions of said farm, and distributed the proceeds as will appear by the Audits filed in No 1802 Equity Circuit Court for Frederick County, and died without fully executing his trust leaving a portion of said Real Estate remaining unsold.

Your Respondents so far as they are interested, are willing that the former decree passed in this cause should be revived and a new Trustee appointed to sell the residue of the real estate unsold by Charles Johnson deceased the former trustee
