No 4242 Equity

10th C. Interrogatory: What buildings?
Answer: There were a barn and house and other buildings there.
11th C. Interrogatory: What price was it?
Answer. I think it was about $45 per acre, I am not certain 12th C. Interrogatory: What buildings were on the farm you bought?
Answer: Well a barn and a house.
13th C. Interrogatory: What per acre did you give?
Answer. I gave sixty five dollars ($65.)
14th C. Interrogatory: How many acres?
Answer: I think One hundred and three (103) or One hundred and five (105) acre.
15th C. Interrogatory: Did you not have to repair the house on this place extensively?
Answer: Yes.
16th C. Interrogatory: Was not the barn also in great need of repair?
Answer: Well I can't say it was. It wasn't much out of repair It didn't take much to repair that. It was a tolerable good barn.

Testimony

17th C. Interrogatory: Is not the house on the eleven acre tract a new one?
Answer: I don't think it is very new. I don't know how long it has been put up. I suppose fifteen (15), or sixteen (16) years.

To Re-Direct Interrogatories filed with the Commissioner by the Trustees and herewith returned, the said Elias Zimmerman deposes & says, to the 1st R. D. Interrogatory: What was the quality of the Land George W. Smith bought as compared with the land in question, & how much nearer town was it?
Answer. It is a good deal better than this, and it is only a mile and a half or two miles from town. It has a log and frame house and a Spring and Stone Spring house on it, which I forgot in my answer to Cross Interrogatory
2d R. D. Interrogatory: Was any lot of Mountain Land thrown into the bargain, in Hargatte's purchase?
Answer: He told me that there was a mountain lot thrown in, and also one half a crop of Grain.
3d R. D. Interrogatory. What other buildings were on the land you bought?
Answer: Well there was a hog and Corn house together, and a smoke house and Wash house, an oven and Spring house & a black Smith's shop and a carriage house.

Joshua J. Zimmerman, a witness of lawful age, produced upon the part of the Trustees being duly sworn & examined to Interrogatories filed with the Commissioner by the Trustees & herewith returned, deposes and says to the 1st Interrogatory: What is your relation to the proceedings in this case?
Answer. I am one of the Trustees.
2d Interrogatory: State what you and your Co-Trustee have done in your endeavors to sell these eleven Acres of Land, and with what result?
Answer: Well we advertised and tried the eleven acres at Public Sale and we had no bid on the eleven acres at all We have had no offer, except this one- There have been parties talking about buying, but they never made any offer This is the only offer we have had at all We had this offer for about a year & Hoffman, the purchaser had