No. 4287 Equity. (Additional proceedings)

obtained against your Petitioner Lewis H. Miller by David C. Winebrenner, Administrator of George A. Winebrenner, & also by other judgments, as by reference to the proceedings will fully appear.

Your Petitioner Lewis H. Miller, claims that out of his share of the said Trust money, he is by law entitled to an exemption of One hundred Dollars, and that your Petitioner Lydia A. R. Miller is entitled out of the said Trust funds to such an amount of money, as the Court shall see proper to allow her in lieu of her contingent right of Dower in said lands.

Wherefore your Petitioners pray that the said sum of money retained by the Trustees in No. 4287 Equity, as the share or portion of said Lewis H. Miller, subject to the further order of said the Court in Audit A & B, filed in said Cause, may be distributed among the parties entitled to said fund, and that there may be distributed and paid over to your Petitioner Lydia Miller, such amount as the Court shall think proper to allow her, in lieu of her potential right of Dower, in the lands of which her husband Lewis H. Miller was seized.

And that there be distributed to your Petitioners Lewis H. Miller out of said Trust fund aforesaid the sum of One hundred Dollars the amount by law exempt from execution, And as in duty &c.
