Frederick Heinline vs. Cyrus J. Fout & Martha E. Fout his wife, Sheridan Rupley & Fannie Rupley his wife & others	No. 4801 Equity. In the Circuit Court for Frederick County in Equity.

The object of this suit is to obtain a Decree for the Sale of the Lands or so much thereof as may be necessary of William H. Ramsburg to pay the claim of the Complainant and of all other Creditors of the said William H. Ramsburg dec'd.

Order of Publication

The Bill of Complaint charges that the said William H. Ramsburg was indebted in his life time to the Complainant by his promissory note, for the sum of Two thousand Dollars, that various payments have been made on the same, and that there is now a balance due sum of Six hundred and twenty one dollars and eight cents with interest from May 15th 1882.

That said William H. Ramsburg died in the month of June 1880, and by his Will devised and bequeathed all his property to his wife Catharine A. R. Ramsburg for and during her life, and after her death to Thomas Grunch and Thomas M. Markell in trust for the use of his daughter Martha E. Fout and Fannie Rupley for life, and, after their death to their children as provided in said Will. That Catharine A. R. Ramsburg the Executrix named in said Will, and also the life tenant after settling her accounts as Extrx, and distributing the personal estate among the Creditors of said decedent, died — that said Thomas Grunch and Thomas M. Markell the Trustees named in said will, declined the Trust and that Cyrus J. Fout and Charles E. Lewis were by the Circuit Court for Frederick County in Equity, appointed Trustees in their room and place. That said decedent at the time of his death was seized and possessed of a large and valuable landed Estate, portions of which had been sold by Mortgagees & the surplus of the sales of the same distributed among the Creditors of said William H. Ramsburg, still leaving considerable indebtedness, unpaid, that said William H. Ramsburg has still left, a farm containing One hundred and two acres, House & two lots in Frederick and a small tract of Land, called New Richmond Mills, that his personal estate is wholly exhausted, and that for the payment of his debts, it will require the sale of a portion
