No. 4794 Equity.

To the 5th Interrogatory:— The said land is not susceptible of division among the parties interested, for the reason that it is too small a tract, and part of it (about half of it) is very poor and swampy; and besides there is but one set of buildings on it; and a division of it would cause great loss and injury.

Daniel H. Blickenstaff, a witness of lawful age produced on the part of the Complainant being duly sworn and examined to Interrogatories filed with the Commissioner and herewith returned deposes and says

To the 1st Interrogatory,— I know the parties to this suit, and have known them all for many years.

Testimony

To the 2d Interrogatory,— I knew Caroline Carver, late of Frederick County She is dead; she died some time in the fall of 1881, at her home in Catoctin District, in Frederick County, Maryland.

To the 3d Interrogatory,— She left three children, viz:—

(1) A daughter, Nancy Harshman, the wife of John T. Harshman, both of whom are adults over 21 years of age, and residents of Frederick County, Maryland

(2) A daughter Cynthia, the wife of Daniel Marker, both of whom are adults, and both of whom are residents of Frederick County, Maryland.

(3) A son John H. Carver, an unmarried infant about 17 years of age who resides in Frederick County, Maryland.

To the 4th Interrogatory.— I am acquainted with the land of which the said Caroline Carver died seized and possessed. I look at "Exhibit No. 1" now shown me, and it does describe the real estate of which the said Caroline Carver died seized and possessed.

To the 5th Interrogatory.— The said land is not susceptible of division among the parties interested, without great loss and injury for the reason that it is too small a tract and has but one set of buildings on it. To divide it among the parties interested would greatly impair its value.

Whereupon, there being no other witnesses to be examined, and no further time being required for the production of evidence, the Commissioner closed the said Commission, and herewith returns the same under his hand and seal this Twenty-fifth day of November, A. D. 1882.
