

(ii) A minor parent may be exempt from the requirements of subparagraph (i) of this paragraph if a social service worker confirms that the minor parent or child's physical safety or emotional health would be in jeopardy.

(q) (1) Custodial parents under the age of 20 years shall be required to attend classes on:

(i) Family health, unless attendance would violate their bona fide religious beliefs and practices; and

(ii) Parenting skills.

(2) Failure to consistently attend class as provided under paragraph (1) of this subsection shall result in the removal of the custodial parent from the calculation of the AFDC benefit.

(r) The Secretary shall revise the rules of eligibility so that noncustodial parents in need of education and job training in order to pay child support obligations shall be served in Project Independence, to the extent resources permit.

(s) (1) The Secretary, through Project Independence, shall train interested and appropriate recipients in child care provider skills in order to meet the growing need for child care services in the State.

(2) To the extent practicable, the Secretary shall utilize these trained individuals to provide community-based child care services to present and former AFDC recipients.

(t) (1) The provisions of this subsection shall apply to all AFDC recipients in the State.

(2) The Secretary shall revise the schedule of program assistance by requiring benefits to be paid beginning 14 days after the application date.

(u) (1) The provisions of this subsection shall apply to all AFDC recipients in the State.

(2) The Secretary shall revise the schedule of program assistance by requiring State-only assistance for pregnant women who have no other children to be paid beginning 14 days after the application date.

(v) (1) Except for a control group, the provisions of this subsection shall apply to all AFDC recipients in the State.

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (4) of this subsection, the Secretary shall revise the schedule of AFDC benefits to be paid to a recipient under the AFDC program by eliminating the increment in cash benefits under the program for which a recipient would otherwise be eligible as a result of the birth of a dependent child 10 or more months after:

(i) The recipient's initial application for AFDC benefits; or
