No. 4826 Equity.

Lot situated on West Fifth Street in Frederick City Maryland, The witness then looked at paper marked Exhibit No. 1, and says, that paper describes the property which Eliza Spriggs died seized and possessed. —

4th Int. State the heirs at Law of said Eliza Spriggs as far as you know them their ages, residences and conditions in life. ——

4th Ans. Eliza Spriggs left no husband and no children surviving her; I recollect of no brother of Eliza Spriggs named Henry; her heirs at Law are, a brother Peter Williams, who is an adult, and resides in Carroll County, a brother Benjamin Williams residing in Frederick County and who is an adult, and the heirs at Law of Matilda Bambridge, a deceased sister of Eliza Spriggs are, a surviving husband Jesse Bambridge, who is an adult, non-resident of the State of Maryland and said to reside in the State of Ohio, a daughter Jane Rebecca Williams, wife of John Williams both adults, and whose residences are unknown to me, reported by some to be in Baltimore City, a daughter Sarah C. Veneris wife of Luther Veneris adults residing in Frederick County, a son Martin L. Bambridge supposed to reside in Frederick County, but whose residence is not certainly known to me; a son Josiah Bambridge whose wife's name is Susan Bambridge, both adults non-residents of the State of Maryland and residing in the State of Ohio, a daughter Amanda the wife of —— Bench, whose first name is unknown to me, both adults, non-residents of the State of Maryland, and said to reside in the State of Wisconsin, a son John F. Bambridge, adult, whose name is unknown to me, and a son James Bambridge and a son William Bambridge, both adults, non-residents of the State of Maryland, and said to reside in the State of Ohio, also the heirs at Law of Regin Williams, a deceased brother of said Eliza Spriggs are, a daughter Jennie Adams, adult, whose residence is unknown, said by some to be in Baltimore city — a daughter Priscilla, married to some one unknown to me, both adults, and whose residence is unknown, a son Regin C. Williams who is an adult non-resident of the State of Maryland, and said to reside in the State of Pennsylvania, a daughter Elizabeth, married to some one unknown to me, both adults, and whose residence is unknown, a daughter Jane Williams an infant non-resident of the State of Maryland, but whose residence is unknown, a son Rameay Williams and a daughter Nellie Williams, both infants whose residences are unknown, said by some to be in Baltimore City, also the heirs-at-law of Nathan Williams, and Martin Williams each a deceased brother of Eliza Spriggs, but who said heirs are, and where they reside are unknown to me, also Naomie Brown a sister of Eliza Spriggs who is now the wife of William Brown, both adults residing in Frederick County, and a sister Hannah Williams an adult and whose residence is unknown, and possibly other heirs whose names, age and place of residence are unknown to me.

Testimony

5th Int. Is or is not said Real Estate susceptible of division among the parties interested? State your reasons for the opinion you entertain on this subject.