

the tax credit program established under Section 1 of this Act in increasing the employment and prospects for self-sufficiency of the target population, including an analysis of the profile of employers having taken advantage of these tax credits in hiring new employees, the cost effectiveness of the subsidy in reaching State goals, and the appropriateness of the level of the tax credits. The study shall also include an analysis of the potential effectiveness of the program based on varying the size, duration, and structure of the subsidy. The Department shall complete and present the results of the study to the Senate Budget and Taxation Committee and the House Committee on Ways and Means by December 1, 1999.

SECTION 4. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall be applicable to all taxable years beginning after December 31, 1996 but before January 1, 2003; provided, however, that the tax credit under § 21-309 of the Education Article, as enacted under Section 1 of this Act, shall be allowed only for employees hired on or after October 1, 1997 but before January 1, 2001; and provided further that any excess credits under § 21-309 of the Education Article may be carried forward and, subject to the limitations under § 21-309 of the Education Article, may be applied as a credit for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2003.

SECTION 5. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That Section 2 of this Act shall take effect on the taking effect of the termination provision specified in Section 3 of Chapter 492 of the Acts of the General Assembly of 1995. If that termination provision takes effect, §§ 10-205(b) and 10-306(b)(1) of the Tax - General Article as enacted by Section 1 of this Act shall be void. This Act may not be interpreted to have any effect on that termination provision.

SECTION 6. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That, subject to the provisions of Section 4 of this Act, this Act shall take effect October 1, 1997. It shall remain in effect for a period of 3 years and 3 months and at the end of December 31, 2000, with no further action required by the General Assembly, this Act shall be abrogated and of no further force and effect.

Approved April 29, 1997.
