No. 5226 Equity.

23 Int. At what price was it bid up to? Ans. $916.=
24 Int. What did you then say or do when it was bid up to this place?
Ans. It was knocked off at that bid.
25 Int. How was it knocked off, what did you say or do? Ans. Going, Gone,
26 Int. Who made the bid. Ans. I don't remember, I just remember the sum.
27 Int. Did you know that the person whose bid it was, was bidding for some one else? I so for whom.
Ans. I was under the impression it was still bid, I did not know that it was for somebody else; I supposed it was for himself.
28 Int. What took place then?
Ans. I rested a short time and talked with the people when I was ordered by Mr. Rogers to cry lot No. 4 again.
29 Int. Did you put it up again, and if so with what result?
Ans. I put it up at the same figures that it had been knocked off at. I cried it a long time without an increase of bid and knocked it down to Mr. Rogers.

Testimony

30 Int. While you were crying it after it had been put up the second time, did you see Mr. Todd there? Ans. Yes sir.
31. Int. State whether or not Mr. Todd during this time said anything upon the subject of selling it?
Ans. He told me to knock it of to Rogers.
32 Int. During the whole of the sale were Mr. Rogers and Mr. Todd generally apart or together?
Ans. They were generally together as far as I noticed; but I did not notice them very particularly on account of my extreme effort to sell the property I got hoarse.
33 Int. Did you hear Mr. Todd give any directions about the order of selling the property or anything of that kind?
Ans. I heard Mr. Rogers say at the beginning of the sale that upon consultation with Mr. Todd he had concluded to sell the property differently from the way it was advertised.
34 Int. How much time was consumed in making the whole sale?
Ans. I think about two hours, if not more.
35. Int. Was the same hurried or ample opportunity given?
Ans. It was not hurried and I solicited bids from every man on the grounds, I think.

Cross Examination of Jno. L. Hill.

1x Int. To what figure had the lots 1, 5 & 6 been bid when withdrawn at the first offer? Ans. I think $600.= or about there.
2x Int. When the same property was knocked down to Mr. Rogers when offered the second time, it was knocked down at $500 or $600 less, was it not? Ans. I think it was about $600.=
3x Int. Do you know who bid the $600.= when it was first being offered?
Ans. I don't remember, sir.
4x Int. Do you know why it brought less the second time than was bid for it the first time? Ans. No sir.
5x Int. Do you know who bid the $3100.= on the farm when offered alone?
Ans. I don't remember, sir.
