

(c) (1) Each unit of the State government:

(i) on or before July 14 of each year, shall evaluate federal aid for which, in the next fiscal year, the unit will request an increased appropriation from the General Fund; and

(ii) on or before August 15, shall submit, subject to § 2-1312 of the State Government Article, to the Committees and to the Department of Budget and Management and the Department of Fiscal Services a report on the evaluation.

(2) If a unit determines on or after July 15 that the unit will request an increased appropriation from the General Fund as a supplement to or substitute for federal aid, the unit shall evaluate the federal aid and submit, subject to § 2-1312 of the State Government Article, a report on the evaluation within 45 days after making the determination.

(3) On request of a unit, the Committees may waive the requirements of this subsection.

(d) A report under this section shall:

(1) be in the form that the Department of Budget and Management sets in conjunction with the Department of Fiscal Services; and

(2) include:

(i) a description of the federal aid;

(ii) a statement as to the effectiveness of the federal aid; and

(iii) a recommendation on future appropriations from the General Fund.]
