

(2) After each special session, the Department shall compile and index the laws that are enacted during that session.

(b) (1) After completion of the compilation and index, the Department shall deliver copies of the laws, executive orders ADOPTED PURSUANT TO ARTICLE II, § 24 OF THE MARYLAND CONSTITUTION, certificates, and titles to the printer who is designated to print the session laws.

(2) The printer shall print promptly:

(i) the documents delivered under this section; and

(ii) with the compilation for a regular session, the statement of receipts and expenditures of public money delivered under § 2-103 of the State Finance and Procurement Article.

(3) The printer shall deliver the volumes to the Director.

(4) THE DEPARTMENT SHALL PUBLISH OTHER EXECUTIVE ORDERS DELIVERED TO IT IN ACCORDANCE WITH § 3-406(B) OF THIS ARTICLE.

DRAFTER'S NOTE:

Error: Obsolete language in § 2-1309(a) of the State Government Article. This change corresponds with current practice. Section 2-1309(b)(1) is modified for consistency. Section 2-1309(b)(4), cross-referencing publication requirements under § 3-406(b) of the State Government Article, is added for clarity.

Occurred: As a result of Ch. 6, Acts of 1990. Because executive orders are published by the Department of Legislative Reference as a separate document and are no longer codified by the publishers of the Annotated Code, they are not printed in the Session Laws. As modified, executive orders issued pursuant to Article II, § 24 (relating to governmental reorganizations) of the Constitution that are assigned chapter numbers and codified would continue to be published in the Session Laws.

2-1313.

The Department shall keep the volumes current.

(2) ON REQUEST, THE DEPARTMENT SHALL PROVIDE ONE ADDITIONAL COPY OF THE ANNOTATED CODE OF MARYLAND TO EACH:

(I) PRESIDING OFFICER;

(II) PRO TEMPORE OFFICER;

(III) CHAIRMAN OF A STANDING COMMITTEE;

(IV) MAJORITY LEADER; AND
