

[7.

Any surety or the personal representative of any surety, upon the official bond of any State, county, municipal or other public officer who is, by the Constitution of the State of Maryland, or by any law, ordinance, rule or regulation, required to give such bond, may be discharged from further liability as such surety upon application by petition to the court, judge, officer, board or other person or persons or body having authority to approve such bond, who shall thereupon immediately, by order reciting such application, require such public officer to furnish a new bond in the same manner as if none had ever been given by him within thirty days after personal service of such order. Such personal service may be made either within or without the State of Maryland by the said court, judge, officer, board or other person or persons or body, or by any person authorized by them or at their request, by the surety or any agent or representative of the surety. When such new bond is given and approved, according to law, in compliance with said order, the surety on the prior bond shall remain liable for acts or defaults occurring prior thereto, but shall be discharged from all further liability from the acts or defaults of said officer which may be done or committed subsequent to the approval of such new bond. The office of any such State, county, municipal, or other public officer shall become vacant at the expiration of thirty days from personal service as aforesaid, if the said officer shall not have complied with such order by filing new bond, and the said vacancy shall be filled as provided by law in case of death, resignation or removal; this provision shall be mandatory.]

REVISOR'S NOTE: Art. 90, §§ 5 through 7 are repealed as obsolete. The remainder of former Art. 90 (§ 10) is revised as § 15-115 of the Estates and Trusts Article.

[Article 94 - Time]

[3.

(a) Notwithstanding §§ 1 and 2 of this article, the standard of time in this State between 2 o'clock antemeridian on the last Sunday in April and 2 o'clock antemeridian on the last Sunday in October of each year, shall be one hour in advance of that prescribed above, commonly known as daylight saving time.

(b) No department or other agency of the State government, and no county, municipal corporation, or other political subdivision of the State may employ any time, or adopt any ordinance or order providing for the use of any standard of time which does not conform to subsection (a) of this section.]

Notwithstanding the provisions hereinabove in this article or elsewhere in the laws of this State, the variation from standard time known commonly as daylight saving time shall be effective in Allegany County as in this section provided. From two o'clock A.M. on the last Sunday in April until two o'clock A.M. on the last Sunday in September of each year, the official time throughout Allegany County shall be advanced one hour; provided, however, that the Board of County Commissioners of Allegany County, by resolution, passed not less than fifteen days before the change would become effective,
