Keefer & Kauffman-

At the Request of John C. Motter the following Deed of Trust is received for Record and Recorded December 24 1887, at 11 O'clock 55 minutes A M. Tests- W. Irving Parsons, Clerk.

This Deed made on this 23rd day of December in the year Eighteen hundred and eighty-seven by us Daniel P. Saylor and Bell Saylor his wife of Frederick County, Maryland. Witnesseth whereas the said Daniel P. Saylor is indebted unto different parties in different sums of money and being unable to pay the whole of such debts, has prepared and agreed, to assign all his property and effects unto John C Motter of Frederick County, Maryland, upon trust for the benefit of the creditors of the said Daniel P Saylor and whereas the said Bell Saylor is willing to join in this deed, so far as the Real Estate is concerned, upon consideration that she shall receive out of the proceeds of the sale of the same such an amount of money as the Circuit Court for Frederick County in Equity shall deem right and proper for her potential Right-of-Dower, therein, and does so join in consideration of the payment of such a sum of money to her. Now therefore, in consideration of the premises and one dollar in hand paid, we, the said Daniel P Saylor and Bell Saylor, his wife, do hereby grant, bargain and sell unto the said John C. Motter all those tracts or parcels of land lying and being in Frederick County, Maryland, to-wit:- that tract of land conveyed by deed from Wm. Debaplane and wife, to the said Daniel P Saylor containing, one hundred and seven and 7/10 perches of land more or less, which deed is duly recorded in Liber A. F. No. 6- folio 388- One of the Land Records of Frederick County by reference whereto it will fully appear, that other tract of Land, conveyed by deed from Orrow Ledgwood and others to the said Daniel P. Saylor, containing twelve acres of land more or less, which deed is duly recorded in Liber A. F. No. 11- folio 116. One of the Land Records of Frederick County, by reference whereto it will fully appear, said tracts of real estate being all the Real Estate of which the said Daniel P. Saylor is seized and possessed, and all such other and further interest of every kind whatsoever that the said Daniel P. Saylor has in any other Real Estate wherever situated; also all and singular the goods and chattels and effects, personal property and estate whatsoever, of him the said Daniel P. Saylor his books of account, debts, sums of money and other things due and owing to him the said Daniel P Saylor or in any way coming to him, it being the intention of this deed to convey to said party all the Estate and property of the said Daniel P. Saylor except so much as by law is exempt from execution, which is reversed to the said Daniel P. Saylor, he the said John C Motter to have, hold, receive and take the same upon trust, that he do and shall as soon as conveniently may be, make sale and dispose of so much, and such part thereof either at public or private Sale as he may deem best as are in their nature saleable for the best prices that can be reasonably had for the same; and upon such terms as he may think to the best advantage of this Trust; and do
