No. 5617 Equity.

Excepting William Mealy and his wife and William Barnell and his wife who reside in Baltimore County and Franklin A. Dixon and wife who reside in Baltimore City.

5th Int. State whether or not said real estate is susceptible of division or partition among said heirs at law, without great loss and injury to them and give your reasons for your answer?

Ans. It certainly can not be divided among them without great loss and injury, because the quantity of land is so small and some of it town property and the heirs are so many, that to divide and subdivide it among them would utterly destroy the value of the respective shares.

To the Gen. Int. by the Examiner.

Ans. I know nothing further.

(Signed) Thomas A. Ogle
