No. 5742 Equity.

handwriting and have frequently seen her write.

7th Int. State whether said real estate is susceptible of division or partition among said parties without great loss and injury and give your reasons for your answer?

Ans. I do not think it can, because the property is too small to be divided up without loss and injury.

To the Gen. Int. by the Same

Ans. That is about all I know about it.

Decree

Adjourned to Nov. 29. 1890.

Mrs. Annie E. Heuser a witness of lawful age produced on the part of the Plaintiffs being duly sworn and Examined deposes and says—

1st Int. Are you and of the parties named in this suit?

Ans. I am, and a daughter of Mrs. Eleanor F. Stauffer.

2. Int. State whether your mother died testate or intestate?

Ans. She left no will.

3. Int. State whether or not your mother left or was possessed of any personal property at the time of her death?

Ans. Yes Sir but very little; not enough to justify administration, not over $20= worth.

4th Int. State whether or not your mother left any creditors at the time of her death and whether there any creditors of her estate?

Ans. Yes Sir. Her funeral Expenses. $46 00 which I advanced to Henry B. Foote - also a doctors bill of $72 00 due Dr. F. B. Smith, which is yet unpaid. She also owed me $200= as is Evidenced by Exhibit B. filed in this case. She also owed my sister Jennie R. Stauffer $85= as Evidenced by Exhibit D. filed in this case. The above are all the bills due by my mother or her Estate.
