No 5751 Equity

the best feather bed and half dozen Chairs remaining of my personal property and my Executor shall Convey all of the balance of my estate both real and personal to the children of John Freshour & heirs and share alike, and said Barbara is not to have any other benefit save the bed and Chairs.

And lastly I do hereby Constitute and appoint John C Motter to be sole Executor of this my last will and testament, revoking and cancelling all former Wills by me made, ratifying and Confirming this and none other to be my last will and testament.

In testimony whereof I hereto set my hand and seal this 17 day of October in the year 1870

Adam his x mark Freshour (Seal)

Signed, sealed published and declared by the above named Adam Freshour as and for his last Will and Testament, in our presence, who at his request, in his presence and in the presence of each other and after the interlineations on the 2d line of this Page were made and acknowledged by him as part of his Will have hereto set our hands as witnesses hereto.

Wm Mahony
Jo. S. Payne
C. H. Eckstein

Maryland, Frederick County, Sct:
On this 30th day of November 1881. Came John C Motter and made oath on the Holy Evangels of Almighty God, that the aforegoing instrument writing is the true and whole Will and Testament of Adam Freshour, late of Frederick County, deceased, that he came by his hands and possession, that he received the same from Lydia Ann Freshour and that he does not know of any other of a later date.

Test:
James P Perry, Register of Wills
for Frederick County, Md.

State of Maryland, Frederick County, Sct:
On the 1st day of December 1881. Came William Mahony, Joseph S Payne and C H Eckstein, the subscribing Witnesses to the aforegoing last Will and Testament of Adam Freshour, late of Frederick County, deceased, and made oath on the Holy Evangels of Almighty God, that they did see Adam Freshour, the Testator, therein named, sign and seal this Will; that they heard him publish, pronounce and declare the same to be his last will and testament; that at the time of his so doing he was to the best of their apprehension, of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding; and that they respectively subscribed their names as witnesses to said Will, in the presence of and at the request of the testator, and that they did also see each the other subscribing witnesses sign his name as Witness to said Will at the request of the Testator, in his presence, and all in the presence of each other.

Test:
James P. Perry
Register of Wills
for Frederick County