No. 5751 Equity.

6th Int. Did you know Lydia Ann Freshour wife of said Adam Freshour? If yes is she living or dead?

Ans. I know her. She is dead. She sometime after her husband.

7th Int. Did you know the personal estate left by the said Adam Freshour? If yes give its pecuniary value?

Ans. I did. It consisted of a few old chairs and stuff worth not over two dollars.

8th Int. Are the children of John Freshour possessed of any pecuniary means or property other than this real estate?

Ans. They are not. They are poor.

9 Int. Are you acquainted with the houses, fencing, buildings and fencing on said lots? If yes what are their condition with reference to repair?

Ans. I am. I have examined the same recently and found them very much out of repair. New roofing is required and lathing and plastering, flooring, sills, doors, windows and fencing on the lot, all of which are necessary for the comfortable enjoyment of the property and its preservation?

10 Int. Did you form any estimate of the amount necessary to put it in proper repair? If so, how much?

Ans. I did. I thought it would cost at least $150 - if not more. If you enter come into every bedroom and when you once commence to repair the property you will find that it will cost more than you think.

To the Gen. Int. by the Examiner

Ans. Nothing that I know of
