Answer

The Central National Bank of Frederick vs
Sidney R. Wolfe, Executrix vs Louisa G. MacGill, and Patrick H. MacGill her husband, and William R. Percy, Trustee

No. 5758 Equity

In the Circuit Court for Frederick County, in Equity.

The Defendant William R. Percy, Trustee, for Answer to the Bill of Complaint filed in this Cause, answers and says, 1st That he admits that the said Thomas M. Wolfe was in his lifetime indebted to the Central National Bank, in the sum of three hundred dollars, as stated in the first paragraph of said Bill.

2. That he admits that the said Thomas M. Wolfe departed this life in the month of August 1890, and that he devised all his real and personal property to Sidney R. Wolfe his wife, as stated in the second paragraph of said Bill.

3. That he admits that the said Thomas M. Wolfe at the time of his death was seized and possessed of the Real Estate mentioned in the Third Paragraph of said Bill.

4th That he admits that the said Thomas M. Wolfe was in his lifetime indebted to the said Louisa G. MacGill, in the Mortgage debt of twenty five hundred dollars and interest, as stated in the Fourth paragraph of said Bill.

5th That he admits that the said Thomas M. Wolfe was in his lifetime indebted unto the said William R. Percy, Trustee, in the Mortgage debt of twenty five hundred dollars, and interest, as stated in the Fifth paragraph of said Bill.

6th That he admits that the personal estate of the said Thomas M. Wolfe is insufficient for the payment of his debts, as stated in the Sixth paragraph of said Bill, and consents to the passage of a decree for the sale of said real estate as prayed, provided his Mortgage debt be paid out of the proceeds of sale according to its priority of lien.
