No. 5482 Equity

and twenty dollars, with interest, which Mortgage is now due, how much of which is unpaid these Plaintiffs do not now know, a copy of which mortgage as recorded in the Land Records of Frederick County is filed herewith as Exhibit No. 3. to the Bill.

6th. These Plaintiffs further represent and charge, that the above mentioned real Estate described in Exhibits No 1 & 2. are not susceptible of division among those entitled thereto without great damage and loss, and that it would be to the interest and advantage of all of said heirs at law and especially the infant Minnie Hays, to have the same sold under the decree of your Honorable Court, and the proceeds after the payment of the Amount due on the Mortgage to Horner and the costs interest to be divided among said heirs at law according to their respective interest.

And the Plaintiffs pray for the following relief—

1st. That a summons be issued directed to the said Christian Keesling, Susan Cline and Lawson Cline her husband, Amanda Cline and Elias Cline her husband, Ellen Grossnickle and Nathan Grossnickle her husband, Elizabeth Poffenberger and John Poffenberger, her husband, George Harp and Clara Harp his wife Amanda Brandenburg and Theodore M Brandenburg her husband Clara Shank and Jacob Shank her husband, Genetta Hockman and Emanuel Hockman her husband, and Charles Harp of Frederick County, Maryland, Peter Keesling and Elizabeth Keesling his wife, Daniel L. Keesling and Alice Keesling his wife of Washington County, Maryland and Viola Hays of Baltimore City Maryland, Commanding them and each of them to be and appear in your Honorable Court on some certain day to be named therein, to answer the premises, and abide by and perform such decree as may be passed in the premises, and that an Order of publication may be passed giving notice to the non-resident defendants of the object and substance of the Bill and to be and appear in your Honorable Court on some certain day to be named therein, to answer the premises and abide by and perform such decree as may be passed in the premises—

2d. That a decree may be passed by your Honorable Court directing that the real estate described in Exhibits No 1 & 2 be sold and the proceeds distributed among those entitled as above set forth.

3d. And for such other and further relief as the nature of their case may require.

And as in duty bound &c
