

commission of this State or any political subdivision thereof, are hereby authorized, empowered, and directed to enforce compliance with this section.

(i) All public authorities and agencies having supervision of properties of this State are authorized, empowered and instructed to establish and maintain receptacles for the deposit of litter at appropriate locations where such property is frequented by the public, and to post signs directing persons to such receptacles and serving notice of the provisions of this section, and to otherwise publicize the availability of litter receptacles and requirements of this section.

(j) (1) Fines collected for violations of this section shall be disbursed to:

(i) The county or city where the violation occurred; or

(ii) The bi-county agency, if the bi-county agency is the enforcement agency and the violations occurred on property over which the bi-county agency exercises jurisdiction.

(2) Fines collected shall be used to defray the expense of establishment and maintenance of receptacles and posting of signs as provided in subsection (i) of this section and for any other purposes relating to the removal or control of litter.

(k) (1) The Washington County Board of County Commissioners, by ordinance, may regulate recycling in the County.

(2) The ordinance authorized in paragraph (1) of this subsection may provide penalties for persons who place materials that are not recyclable into recycling bins.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect October 1, 2000.

Approved April 25, 2000.

CHAPTER 176

(House Bill 1244)

AN ACT concerning

Montgomery County - Education - Home and Hospital Teacher Representation

MC 3-00

FOR the purpose of including Montgomery County home and hospital teachers in the definition of "public school employees" for the purpose of provisions of law related to organizations of certificated employees; requiring the exclusive negotiating agent for public school employees in Montgomery County to represent home and hospital teachers in certain matters; exempting certain county home or hospital teachers from the requirement to pay a certain