No 5787 Equity

Frederick County this 18th day of Feby 1891

Test Hamilton Lindsay
Register of Wills for Frederick County.

Filed February 18. 1891

Answers &c.

Caroline Hahn.
vs
Joseph A Unglebower
Adm c.t.a. of Margaret
M Unglebower dec'd et al

No. 5787 Equity

In the Circuit Court for Frederick County as a Court of Equity

To the Honorable the Judges of said Court.

The joint and several answers of Joseph A Unglebower Administrator C.T.A. of Margaret M Unglebower dec'd Joseph A Unglebower and Josephine J Unglebower his wife. Mary M. Poole. Elizabeth A. Feaga and Charles E. Feaga her husband and Anna Mary Unglebower also called Amy Unglebower to the Bill of Complaint of Caroline Hahn –

The Defendants admit the allegations of the Bill and consent to the immediate passage of a decree for the sale of the real Estate of which Margaret M. Unglebower died seized and possessed.

Joseph A. Unglebower
Adm. c.t.a of M. M. Unglebower
Joseph A. Unglebower
Josephine J. Unglebower
Mary M. Poole
Elizabeth A. Feaga
C. E. Feaga
Annie M. Unglebower

Filed February 18th 1891.

Caroline Hahn
vs
Joseph A. Unglebower
adm c.t.a. of Margaret
M Unglebower dec'd et al

No. 5787 Equity

In the Circuit Court for Frederick County in Equity.

To the Honorable the Judges of said Court

The petition of Caroline Hahn the plaintiff in this cause respectfully states –

That it is perfectly clear from the proceedings in this cause that at the final hearing of the cause a sale of the real Estate therein mentioned will be ordered, that plaintiff's Mortgages are on the most valuable portion of the said real Estate and that if she sells under the powers of sale in said Mortgages the rest of the property will be rendered comparatively valueless and that it is for the interest of all and especially of the afflicted defendant Annie Mary Unglebower that the property be sold altogether and as speedily as possible that all the resident defendants have answered assenting to an immediate decree and they are as anxious as plaintiff to have the same sold as quickly as possible before the season further advances and that the non-residence of a daughter