

(*) (l) On or before September 30, 2004 and in a format considered appropriate by the executive committee, the Task Force shall report ~~its~~ the findings and recommendations of each workgroup, including appropriate legislative or regulatory proposals, to the Governor and, subject to § 2-1246 of the State Government Article, to the House Environmental Matters ~~Committee~~ and Economic Matters Committees and the Senate Education, Health, and Environmental Affairs Committee.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect ~~October~~ June 1, 2002. It shall remain effective for a period of 2 years and 4 months and, at the end of September 30, 2004, with no further action required by the General Assembly, this Act shall be abrogated and of no further force and effect.

Approved May 16, 2002.

---

CHAPTER 536

(House Bill 683)

AN ACT concerning

Child Support - Financial Institutions - Garnishment of Accounts

FOR the purpose of requiring a financial institution to submit certain information to the Child Support Enforcement Administration; authorizing the Administration to seize and attach certain assets from an account or accounts of an obligor under certain circumstances; requiring the Administration to send a notice containing certain information to a financial institution, ~~an obligor, and an account holder of interest~~ and an obligor under certain circumstances; providing an obligor or an account holder of interest the right to challenge a decision by the Administration in a certain manner under certain circumstances; providing an obligor or an account holder of interest the right to appeal the findings of the Administration after the Administration has reviewed a challenge filed by the obligor or an account holder of interest; providing for the right of a challenging party and the Administration to withdraw ~~a request for an administrative~~ challenge or appeal; requiring the Administration to take certain actions after completion of a challenge or appeal; providing that a financial institution that complies with this Act is not liable for certain actions; requiring the Administration to reimburse certain account holders of interest under certain circumstances; providing a certain exception for disclosures by fiduciary institutions; defining certain terms; altering certain definitions; correcting certain cross references; and generally relating to the Child Support Enforcement Administration and the garnishment of accounts.

BY renumbering

Article - Family Law

Section 10-108.3 through 10-108.5, respectively

to be Section 10-108.5 through 10-108.7, respectively