In the Circuit Court for Frederick County in Equity.
March Term 1893.

The object of this suit is to obtain a decree for the sale of the Real Estate of which Samuel Hoke Sr. died seized and possessed, and the division of the proceeds of said sale among his heirs at law.

The Bill states and alleges:

1st. That on the 10th day of February in the year 1893 the said Samuel Hoke Sr. of Frederick County, departed this life intestate seized and possessed of several parcels of Real Estate situated in Frederick County, Maryland fully described in Exhibits filed with said Bill.

2. A son, named Martin Hoke, whose wife's name is Amanda Hoke.
3. A son, Samuel Hoke Jr. whose wife's name is Sarah Hoke
4. A son, David Hoke, whose wife's name is Jennie Hoke.
5. A daughter Magdalene Boogle.
6. A daughter, Mary Swartz, whose husband's name is Patrick Swartz.
7. A daughter, Catharine Barrier.
8. A daughter, Rebecca Jones, whose husband's name is Maurice Jones.
9. The following Grand children by a deceased son named George Hoke viz. George B. Hoke, whose wife's name is Ella Hoke, Alva Hoke Leroy Hoke, and Addie Hoke, to which heirs at law said real Estate of which the said Samuel Hoke Sr. died seized and possessed descended and vested in as tenants in Common, and they are now so seized and possessed of the same.

Answer

3rd. That all of said heirs at law are adults, excepting Alva Hoke, Leroy Hoke, who are infants under twenty one years of age, and all reside in Frederick County, Maryland, except John Hoke who resides in the State of Ohio, Magdalene Boogle, who resides in the State of Illinois, and Patrick Swartz and Mary Swartz his wife, who reside in the State of Virginia.

4th. That said real Estate is not susceptible of division among said heirs at law without great loss and damage, and that it would be to the interest of all of said heirs at law, and especially the infants to have the same sold and the proceeds divided among them according to their respective interests.

Guardian Ad Litem

5th. The Bill then prays for the passage of a decree for the sale of said real estate and a division of the proceeds of said sale among said heirs at law.

2. For the issue of subpoenas to the resident defendants to answer said Bill, and abide by and perform such decree as may be passed in this Cause.
