Decree

I am acquainted with the parties to this suit and know them all.

I think I am acquainted with the signatures of E. Keefer Thomas from seeing him write and seeing his writing. I look at Exhibits Nos 1, 2 & 3 and the signatures E.K. Thomas, to each of these Exhibits which are notes for the payment of money to the Plaintiff, and believe them to be the hand writing of the said E. Keefer Thomas.

I was acquainted with E Keefer Thomas in his lifetime. He is dead. He died about June 1889 and left no will.

He left a widow Evalina V. Thomas who resides in Clarke Co. Virginia and the following Children, Samuel S. Thomas who resides in Clark Co. Va. Ann Alice S. Anderson who resides in Washington D.C. both of these Children are adults: and two grand-Children, the children of a deceased daughter, Mary V. Butler to wit:- Virginia S. Butler and Frank Butler both of whom are infants residing in Jefferson County West. Va.

The personal property of said E. Keefer Thomas is not sufficient to pay his debts.

I look at Exhibits 4. 5. 6. 7. 8 & 9 and believe them to correctly describe the real Estate of which said E Keefer Thomas died seized and possessed. the total number of acres being about 297.
