No. 6236. Equity.

Christmas week, six or seven years ago or more, I dont think he left a will.

3 Int. Did he die seized and possessed of any real Estate and if you describe the same?

Ans. Yes Sir. he had a nice little farm of about 100 acres, I understand he had also a wood lot but I dont know that to be a fact. This land is located near Woodsboro in Frederick County. The little farm ought bring $70.00 per acre it is of a desirable size. I dont know what to place the wood land at but it might bring about $20.00 or 25.00 per acre.

4 Int. Did you know John Miller the father of the said John D. Miller?

Ans. yes sir

5 Int. Look at the paper now shown you marked exhibit No. 1. being a copy of the will of the late John Miller, and state whether or not the home farm described therein is the farm of which John D. Miller died seized and possessed?

Ans Yes sir, it was John Millers home farm

6 Int. Look at Exhibit No. 2 now shown you and state whether or not the real estate therein described is the wood lot mentioned by you as the property of the late John D. Miller?

Ans I think it is, as it is the same location that I mentioned the wood lot to be, though I was never on it.

7th Int Did the said John D. Miller leave a widow, now living? if yes what is her name, age and state of health?

Ans. yes sir. her name is Catherine Miller. I would suppose her to be in the neighborhood of 70 years. I am not certain as to her age. Her health is about normal for one of that age.

8 Int. Did the said John D. Miller leave any children or other heirs at law now living. if yes give their names ages and places of residence. and if any married give the names of their husbands and wives?

Ans. He left four children, one of whom is now dead and three living Their names are:-

1 Maggie, a daughter married in her life time to Isaac Iler, she died since her father leaving one Child as her heir at law whose name is Effie C. Iler, aged about 12 years and resides in Frederick County near Creagerstown.

2. Annie Miller, a daughter, unmarried an adult more than 21 years of age and resides in Frederick County,

3. Charles Miller, a son, unmarried who is an adult over 21 years of age and resides in Frederick County

9th owned the said real Estate of which John D. Miller died seized and possessed, admit of division among said heirs at law or Children without loss and injury to the parties interested?

Ans I dont think it would, because it is a small tract now and I dont think it would admit of division on that account.

10th Int, would it or not be to the interest and advantage of all
