vs.

Martin L. Needemus, et al Defendants.

No. 6360. Equity

In the Circuit Court for Frederick County, sitting as a Court of Equity.

The defendants, Adam J. Elgter and Emma F. Elgter, his wife, for answer to the Bill filed against them and other defendants in this cause say,

I. That they admit the truth of the matters and things set out in the 1st, 2nd – 3rd, – 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th, and 11th paragraphs of said Bill:

II. That they deny the truth of the allegations of the 10th paragraph of said Bill. Further these defendants say that no reason exists for the passage of a decree and the sale of the real estate mentioned in these proceedings by a trustee; that they and all other of the parties interested in said real Estate are willing for the sale of the same privately, except it be the plaintiffs; that the said real Estate Consists of farm lands; that no difficulty need be encountered in agreeing upon a fair price for the same; that they, and all others, so far as they know, except the plaintiffs are willing to a sale of the same at private sale; that all of said parties are of the full age of twenty-one years one and fully competent to make a good deed of the same; that instead of it being to the advantage of all parties to have the said
