

1992 LAWS OF MARYLAND

MARYLAND, Sct.:

At an Extraordinary Session of the General Assembly of Maryland, begun and held in the City of Annapolis on the Eighteenth Day of November, 1992, and Ending on the Eighteenth Day of November, 1992, William Donald Schaefer, being Governor of the State, the following laws were enacted, to wit:

CHAPTER 1

(Senate Bill 1)

AN ACT concerning

The Second Budget Reconciliation Act for Fiscal Year 1993

FOR the purpose of eliminating the State's payment of part of the employer social security contributions for certain employees of local boards of education, of community colleges, and of boards of library trustees; specifying that certain social security contributions for certain employees remain the obligations of the employers; authorizing the Governor for a certain fiscal year to reduce certain amounts due the counties and Baltimore City; authorizing a county or Baltimore City to submit a certain schedule to the Board of Public Works by which certain reductions will be implemented by a certain date; providing for the review, modification, and approval by the Board of Public Works of the schedules submitted by the counties and Baltimore City; authorizing the Board of Public Works to establish a schedule for implementation of certain reductions under certain circumstances; authorizing an offset against any money due a county or Baltimore City under certain circumstances; authorizing the counties and Baltimore City and certain governmental units, subject to certain conditions, to take certain actions to meet their fiscal obligations under this Act; authorizing the use of certain increases in State public education aid to offset certain decreases in a local school board's budget; continuing certain authority of the Maryland State Retirement Agency; authorizing Baltimore City to increase its county income tax rate for calendar year 1993 notwithstanding certain timing requirements; making a technical correction; providing for the effective date and application of this Act; and generally relating to the financing of State and local governments by the reduction of certain appropriations to the counties and Baltimore City, by authorizing an increase in the county income tax for Baltimore City, and by altering certain provisions relating to employer social security contributions for certain local employees.
