No. 6509 Equity.

That after giving bond with security for the faithful performance of their trust, and after having complied with all the other prerequisites of the law and of said decree, and after giving notice of the time place manner and terms of sale by advertisement published in the Valley Register a weekly newspaper published in Frederick County for at least three successive weeks prior to the day of sales and by hand bills extensively circulated and posted did pursuant to said notice, attend on the premises at Burkittsville in said County on the 30th day of May A.D. 1896, at 2 O'clock p.m. and then and there offered said premises, to wit, the Home and lot lying and being on the north side of the Main Street in Burkittsville, of which Julia A. Maught died seized as of a life estate therein, and described in a deed from Robert Claggett to Mary Maught dated Aug. 14, 1864 and recorded in Liber E.S. No. 6 folio 50 one of the land records of Frederick County. for sale at public auction to the highest bidder.

That the highest and best bid offered for the same was $670.00 which your trustees considered inadequate and withdrew the sale

And afterwards to wit: on June 6. 1896 your trustees sold the said premises at private sale to David D. Geeslin et ux for the sum of $675.00 whose acknowledgment of purchase is filed herewith marked Exhibit D.D.G. and prayed to be considered part hereof. The said sum agreed on being the highest and best price your trustees could obtain for the same after making diligent effort to sell the same, the trustees report the gross amount of sales at $675.

And your trustees pray your honors that said sale may be finally ratified and confirmed after the usual notice of the order nisi on sales shall have been given as required by law.

Respectfully Submitted
