vs
Emma R. Hood et al

In Equity.

To the Honorable the Judges of said Court:

In pursuance of an order of Court and notice by Counsel for Complainants of their desire to take testimony to be used in the above entitled Cause, I, Glenn H. Worthington, one of the regular and standing examiners in Equity of your Honorable Court, duly appointed qualified and sworn, did on the 7th day of May A.D. 1876 at my Law office in Frederick City Maryland proceed to take the following depositions apart, to wit:

Henry B. Wilson, a witness of lawful age produced on the part of the plaintiffs being first duly sworn by me deposes and says:-

1st Int. State your name and residence?

Ans. My name is Henry B. Wilson, I reside near Plain No. 4 in Frederick County, I know the parties to this cause, all of them.

2nd Int. Did you know Leah M. Hood, in her life time.

Ans. I did.

3rd Int. Is she living or dead and if dead when did she die, did she die testate or intestate?

Ans. She is dead, she died about seven years ago intestate, and left surviving her her husband and five children, as follows:

1. Emma R. Hood, an adult daughter.
2. Effie A. Murphey, an adult daughter married to Thomas Murphey.
3. Daisy L. Hood daughter,
