No. 6556. Equity.

she left surviving her five Children I think, three daughters and two sons one daughter is named Emma Hood. She is an adult and resides in Frederick County. one is named Daisy Hood. I dont remember the names of the others.

She has boys one minor - all reside in Frederick County.

5th Int. Did Leah M. Hood die seized and possessed of any real Estate in Frederick County.

Ans. She did. It is located at Plane No 4. It consists of a house and lot. worth perhaps $600.00

I look at Exhibit A. It correctly describes the property of which she died Seized - being the first parcel of land described therein.

6th Int I the said real estate susceptible of division among the parties interested without loss and injury?

Ans. I dont see how in the world you would go about dividing it. It is a house and about one acre of land and I dont see how it could be divided without impairing its value greatly.

7th Int Do you think it would be to the interest and advantage of all the parties to have the real Estate above mentioned Sold and the proceeds divided Among the parties interested?

Ans, I do - There is no one specially interested in keeping the property in repair.

The proceeds of Sale invested would yield a better income for the owners than the rent of the house after repairs and taxes and other expenses are paid.

To the General interrogatory

I dont know anything else.
