No. 6608 Equity

as No 3 & sold the same to William S. Elgin, at & for the sum of forty dollars, upon the said terms and conditions, he being then and there the highest bidder therefor.

Fourth. He then offered a building lot in Pentons addition to Newton, described in the annexed advertisement as No 4, and sold the same to Frank Garber at & for the sum of thirty dollars, upon the said terms and conditions he being then and there the highest bidder therefor.

Fifth. He then offered a building lot in Pentons addition to Newton, described in the annexed advertisement as No 5. & sold the same to Frank Garber at and for the sum of thirty dollars, upon said terms & conditions he being the highest bidder therefor.

Sixth. He then offered a building lot in Pentons addition to Newton, described in the annexed advertisement as No 6 & sold the same to Frank Garber at & for the sum of twenty five dollars upon the said terms and conditions he being then and there the highest bidder therefor.

Seventh. He then offered the building lots in said addition to Newton, described in said advertisement as No 7 & 8, and sold the same to Frank Garber, at and for the sum of twenty dollars each, on the said terms and conditions, he being then and there the highest bidder therefor.

He offered the building lot in said addition described in said advertisement as No 9. but receiving no sufficient bid therefor he withdrew the same from sale.

He then offered the parcel of land containing five and one half acres, more or less, and situated in Knoxville Frederick County Md & known as the Darby property & improved by a two story & attic frame dwelling, and described in the annexed advertisement as No 10. but receiving no sufficient bid therefor, he withdrew the same from sale

Ninth. He offered the Stone Dwelling House & lot of ground attached, in Knoxville Frederick County Md, adjoining the Hotel property of Clarence Crampton, Mrs John Reed & others & described in the annexed advertisement as No 11 & sold the same to Charles A. Rice at and for the sum of three hundred and fifty five dollars, upon the said terms and conditions, he being then and there the highest bidder therefor.

Tenth. He then offered the vacant lot of ground in Knoxville Md, adjoining No 11 in said advertisement & described as No 12 thereon & sold the same to Charles A. Rice at & for the sum of thirty six dollars on said terms and conditions, he being then and there the highest bidder therefor, Eleventh. He then offered a one story frame Dwelling House & lot of ground attached in Knoxville, adjoining the Connell property, which is described in the annexed advertisement as No 13 & sold the same to Richard Norris at & for the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, on said terms and conditions, he being then & there the highest bidder therefore,

Twelfth He then offered a vacant lot in Knoxville adjoining the property of J. R. Miller and Williams Hotel, described in said advertisement as No 14. sold the same to J. Mathew Miller at & for the sum of one hundred and two dollars and fifty Cents, on said terms and conditions, he being then and there the highest