Report of Sales

Bradley J. Brandenburg & wife vs
Sarah R. Brandenburg et al.

No 6570. Equity
In the Circuit Court for Frederick County, in Equity.

To The Honorable, the Judges of said Court.—

The Report of sales of Glenn H. Worthington and Clayton O. Keedy Trustees in the above entitled cause respectfully shows unto your Honors, that after giving bond with approved security for the faithful performance of the trust reposed in them by the decree in this cause and after having complied with all the other prerequisites are required by law, and by said decree, and after giving notice of the time, place, manner and terms of sale by advertisement in the "Weekly News" a newspaper published in Frederick County for more than three successive weeks prior to the day of sale and also by hand bills extensively circulated, they did pursuant to said notice attend in front of John C. Williams & Bros Store at Hampstown in Frederick County at a few minutes after 2.30 O'Clock P.M. on Friday the 27th day of November 1896 and then and there proceeded to sell the said real estate as follows.—

Your Trustees first offered at public sale to the highest bidder the farm described and called in said Advertisement as part of "Ridgely's Good Will" containing 115¾ acres, more or less, and sold the same to Samuel R. Molesworth at and for the sum of Thirty Dollars and one cents per acre, he being the highest and best bidder therefore, amounting to the sum of $3466 15/100 with the understanding that said farm is to be accurately surveyed at the expense of the purchaser, and that he is to pay for the quantity of land actually contained in said farm, and said purchaser has obligated himself to comply with the terms of sale prescribed by the decree and set forth in the advertisement as will appear by his acknowledgement of purchase herewith filed as part hereof marked Exhibit S.R.M.

2d Your Trustee then offered at public sale the farm described in the second part of said advertisement as part "Rattlesnake Forest" containing 108 acres in the three separate parcels as advertised and then as a whole, and having ascertained that said farm would sell for a higher and better price as a whole, than in separate parcels, they then and there sold the same to Bradley J. Brandenburg at and for the sum of
