No. 6653 Equity.

Trustees in Insolvency to sell the respective interests in said property except at great loss and sacrifice, and your said Orators Charge that the said lands and premises can not be divided among the respective parties who hold undivided interests therein, without great loss and injury, and that there is now no other person entitled to the possession, care and management of the same, unless it be the trustees in Insolvency of the said Margaret Shafer, and that the interest of all persons entitled to an interest in the said lands and premises mentioned in these proceedings, requires that the same shall be sold by a decree of your Honorable Court, so that the whole title to the said lands may be sold and conveyed to the purchaser thereof free, clear, and discharged of all the various interests therein and the proceeds distributed among the respective parties, according to their several and respective interests therein.

Exhibit A

And the plaintiffs pray for the following relief:—

1st That the defendants herein named may answer the matters and things stated and charged in the respective paragraphs of said Bill of Complaint.

2d That the real estate and premises may be sold under and by virtue of a decree of your Honorable Court and the proceeds of sale divided among the respective parties in interest according to their several and respective interests.

3d And that your Orators may have such other and further relief as the nature and equity of their case may require.

May it please your Honors to grant unto your Orators an order of publication giving notice unto the said Katie or Katherine Hoke, who is a non resident as before stated of the substance and object of this Bill of Complaint and warning her to appear in this Court in person or by Solicitor on or before a certain day, to answer the premises and show cause if any she has why a decree ought not to pass as prayed, and also the writ of subpoena against John T.
