No. 5501 Equity.

and this defendant performed a similar duty, to a large extent and if these claims are allowed as debts against the estate, this defendant reserves the right to prove before the master or Auditor the amount of all moneys he advanced to the Testator from time to time and that the said alleged debts are of that character and was always so considered by the said Nicholas Boogher.

This defendant admits and he so believes the legacies the legacies debts. And this defendant further says that no part of the real estate can be sold to pay any of the debts except under the direction of a Court of Chancery.

This defendant having certain rights in the real estate but as he is advised he cannot obtain affirmative relief by inserting in this answer, but it is remitted to his right of setting forth all these facts in a cross bill.

In answer to the 7th paragraph this defendant admits the same Answering the 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, and 12th paragraphs this defendant admits the same.

Having fully answered prays to be dismissed.

District of Columbia, ss:

I, William F. Boogher, being duly sworn, depose and say: I am one of the defendants in the above entitled cause. I have read the foregoing answer by me signed and the facts therein stated of my own knowledge are true and the facts therein stated upon information and belief I believe to be true.

William F. Boogher

Sworn and subscribed to before me this 1st day of March Eighteen Hundred and eighty-nine

John T. Mitchell
Notary Public.

The answer of Baelis C. Boogher to the Bill of complaint of Jesse L. Boogher & others filed against this defendant and others in the Circuit Court for Frederick County, sitting as a Court of Equity.

This respondent says for answer, he admits that he is the administrator of the Personal Estate of Nicholas Boogher dec'd and has settled his first and final account with the Orphans Court for Frederick County, and Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 5 is a copy of such settlement, that said personal property was insufficient to pay the debts of said Nicholas Boogher dec'd and he is willing for a decree to pass as prayed for the sale of the real Estate of said deceased.

B. C. Boogher

Boogher et al
vs
Boogher et al

No. 5501 Equity
In the Circuit Court for Frederick County, sitting in Equity.