No. 5501 Equity.

It also appears that Simon L. Boogher of said creditors, executed a quit claim deed to said Jesse L. Boogher one of said Jesse having bought him out, as will appear by Exhibit "S. L. B." herewith filed, said Jesse also bought from the trustees of John P. Boogher's estate, the claim of John P. Boogher, as will appear by reference to Exhibit J. P. B. filed herewith, Jesse L. Boogher is therefor now the owner of all the unpaid claims against my father's estate, which claims comprise his own account of $700. and the two claims of Simon L. and John P. of $100. each, as above set forth, with interest from June 1857. and which aggregate three times the value of the real property, left by my Father and mentioned in these proceedings,

And he now seeks to have the title to this property cleared off by sale under the decree of the Court. The overpayment by me, as administrator c. t. a. as appears in my administration account, has been satisfied and paid to me, so that I have no claim, against the estate what appears in my administrators account, has been satisfied and paid to me, so that I have no claim against the estate whatever, on account of said over said over payment or any other account,

All the debts due by my father at the time of his death have been paid in full, except the three claims above mentioned of $700. $100. and $100. with interest, all of which are now owned by said Jesse L. Boogher he being therefore the only unpaid creditor of my father's estate.

To the generally Interrogatory.

I think the whole ground is covered.

B. C. Boogher

No other witness being produced to me to be examined, at the request of the Solicitors for Plaintiffs, said examination was closed, and I now return the depositions, of the witness as the same was read on to and signed him, to your honorable Court under my hand and seal this 1st day of October 1898. Exhibit C. G.
