No. 6729 Equity.

Elisha E. Mullinix and John F. Jamison vs. Wm. F. Sibley, Arthur Marsden, August Norman and Lizetta Strouse and Albert C. Strouse, her husband,	In the Circuit Court for Frederick County, Sitting as a Court of Equity.

To the Honorable the Judges of said Court:-

Your orator, complaining, say:-

1, That they bring this suit as well for the other Creditors of the late Ann Norman, deceased, as for themselves, provided the other Creditors will contribute to the expenses hereof.

2, That said Ann Norman was, in her life time, indebted unto your orator Elisha E. Mullinix in the just and full sum of Eighty Eight dollars, as will appear by reference to the sworn account of your orator filed herewith as "Exhibit A" and prayed to be considered a part hereof as well as all other exhibits filed herewith; and was also indebted in her life time to your orator John F. Jamison in the just and full sum of Twenty one dollars and Ninety cents with interest thereon for several years as will appear by reference to Exhibits B and C. filed herewith, and also to various other persons in different sums of money - Arthur Marsden one of the joint and several makers of Exhibit C, being utterly insolvent.

2a That being so indebted unto your orators and divers other persons as aforesaid, the said Ann Norman departed this life testate on or about March 4th 1897, leaving no husband surviving her, and but one child, a son William F. Sibley
