No. 6729 Equity.

costs, and debts of said decedent, and that, such being the case your orators and the other creditors of said deceased are entitled to have their claims paid out of the other piece of real estate of which the said Ann Norman died seized, to wit, the house and five acres of land described in Exhibit No. 1 above mentioned, the proceeds of which be used as an auxillary fund for that purpose, 9th That your orators, as creditors of said deceased, are interested in the sale of the property directed by said will to be sold for the payment of the debts of decedent, and the executor having died without the power of sale of said property resting in him, your orators do hereby invoke the aid of your Honorable Court for complete and adequate relief in the premises.

To the end therefore:-

(1.) That a trustee may be apointed to sell and convey the real estate directed by said will, as aforesaid, to be sold for the payment of debts, and to apply the money arising from the sale to the purposes intended by the said will, including funeral expenses,

(2.) That the other real estate of said Ann Norman, deceased, may be sold as an auxiliary fund for the payment of the claims of your orators and others.

(3.) That your orators may have such other and further relief as the nature of their case may require,

May it please your honors to grant unto your orators the writ of Subpoena directed to the said William F. Sibley, Arthur Marsden, adults and residing in Frederick County, in Urbana District Maryland, and to August Harmon, residing in Prince George's Co. Md. and to Lizetta Strouse, and A. G. Strouse adults resedding in Washington, D. C. if they should be found in said Frederick County commanding them and each of them to be and appear in this court at some certain day, to be named, therein, and answer the premises and abide by and perform such decree as may be passed in the premises; and also for the order of publication giving notice to said Albert G. Strouse and Lizetta Strouse adults and residents of the District of Columbia, if they be not found within Frederick County, of the object and substance of the aforegoing bill and warning them to appear in person or by solicitor on or before a certain day to be named therein, to abide by and perform such decree as may be passed in the premises, said order to be served on the absent defendant, above named in any of the modes provided in the code, Art XVI Sec. 114, as amended by the acts of Assembly of 1896. Chapter 88.

And as in duty bound your orators &c,

Glenn H. Worthington
Solicitor for complainants.
