

amount due by county clerks and sheriffs, for eighteen hundred and twenty-five, amounting to about forty five thousand dollars, has already been nearly all paid into the treasury.

Of the old valid debts due previous to eighteen hundred and twenty-two, estimated at about twelve thousand dollars, a very small portion has been received in eighteen hundred and twenty-five, the debtors having been indulged by various resolutions of the legislature.

The statement annexed, marked No. 1, is a list of the collectors of the direct tax for 1824, which was payable on the 1st of May 1825, and shews with whom accounts have been adjusted, and who have paid, and who are still in arrears.

No. 2, Is a list of accounts adjusted with county clerks to 1st May 1825.

No. 3, Is a list of accounts adjusted with sheriffs to 1st of May 1825.

No. 4, Is a list of accounts adjusted with county clerks to 1st of November 1825.

No. 5, Is a list of accounts adjusted with sheriffs to 1st of November 1825.

The items of revenue which form the total amount of accounts adjusted with county clerks and sheriffs, are nearly as follows:

Viz. Marriage licenses		$ 7,000
Ordinary licenses		17,480
Retailers of spirituous liquors		7,000
Retailers of dry goods		5,600
Lottery office keepers		3,200
Hawkers and pedlers		680
Billiard tables		200
Wholesale merchants		100
		<hr/>
County clerks		$41,260
Amerciaments		$1,209
Fines and forfeitures		2,730
Taxes in chancery		477
		<hr/>
Sheriffs		4,416
		<hr/>
Total		$45,676
		<hr/>

And the Revenue produced in the several counties is nearly as follows:

Baltimore city and county	23,400
Frederick county	6,527
Washington do	4,095
Anne-Arundel do	2,648	Sheriffs return not made
Harford do	1,888
Charles do	1,226	Sheriffs return not made
Montgomery do	1,513
Allegany do	1,423
Prince-George's do	1,402	Sheriffs return not made
Saint-Mary's do	1,060
Calvert do	658

Rather above forty-five thousand dollars, but the annual amount of those branches of revenue, from the counties on the western shore, ought not to be estimated at more than forty thousand dollars.