No. 7038 Equity.

Answer of Carr E. Shank et al to the said Plaintiff Carr E. Shank in the sum of $359.00 or for any amount for board etc, as alleged in the Plaintiffs Exhibit No. 7 filed in this case.

Third: That they deny the allegations in the fourth paragraph of the said Bill of complaint and further answering say that the personal property of the said William Carmack is sufficient to pay the just debts, of the said Carmack deceased,
Fourth: That they admit the matters and things alleged in the fifth paragraph of the bill of Complaint.
Fifth. That they admit the matters and things alleged in the sixth paragraph of the Bill of complaint.
These defendants having fully answered the bill of complaint ask that they be dismissed with their reasonable costs.

E. O. Neant
Jones & Dixon
Solrs. for Defendants.

Filed July 18, 1899.

Answer of John Landers.

Carr E. Shank
vs
John Carmack et al

No. 7038 Equity.
In the Circuit Court for Frederick County in Equity.

To the Honorable the Judges of said Court:
The joint and separate answer of John Landers and Harriet Landers his wife Carr J. Carmack and Lizzie J. Carmack his wife, Helen Key Groff and Birdie McClelland six of the Defendants named in the above entitled cause.
These Defendants answering say:-
First:- That they admit the matters and things alleged in the first and second paragraphs of said Bill of Complaint
Second:- That they deny the matters and things alleged and in the third paragraph of said Bill of complaint, and further answering say that William Carmack at the time of his death, was not indebted unto the said Plaintiff, Carr E. Shank in the said sum of money alleged in said Bill of Complaint or for any sum whatever for board, attention etc as alleged in Plaintiffs, Exhibit No. 7. filed in this cause.
Third: That they deny the allegations of the fourth paragraph of said Bill of Complaint, and further answering say that the personal estate of said William Carmack is sufficient to pay his just debts.
Fourth:- That they admit the matters and things alleged in the fifth and sixth paragraphs of the said Bill of Complaint,
These defendants having fully answered said Bill of Complaint ask that they be dismissed with their reasonable costs.

Charles C. Yates.
Solicitor for defendants.

Filed August 11th 1899.