No. 7075 Equity.

Testimony,

2nd. Do you know the parties to this suit?
Ans. I am the plaintiff in the cause. Sarah R. Harman widow, of George H. Harman has since the institution of these proceedings, died, all the other defendants excepting Catharine Burke and husband are children of Sarah Harman and George Harman deceased. I knew most of them personally in fact all of them except the husbands of the married daughters. Catharine Burke is a sister of George Harman deceased and I understand that she is married and that she and her husband reside in Baltimore City.
3rd. Int. Did you know George H. Harman, if yes, is he living or dead and if dead when did he die?
Ans. I knew him for a number of years, he is dead, having died, sometime in the Spring of 1899.
4th Int. Did he die seized and possessed of any real estate? If yes, look at Exhibit No. 1, now filed with the Examiner, and state if that correctly describes the real estate of which he died seized (At this juncture the plaintiff filed with the Examiner, Exhibit No. 1. as evidence)
Ans. He did. I look at Exhibit No. 1 and that correctly describes a part of the real estate of which he died seized, the other real estate owned by him at the time of his death has been sold by foreclosure proceedings, which will appear by reference to the Equity docket in your Honorable Court.
5th Was George H. Harman at the time of his death indebted to you in any amount? If yes, give the amount of said indebtedness and state what evidence you have of the same.
1st He was indebted to me by his promissory note, dated April 1st 1890 payable 6 months after date in the sum of $187.28 which note is herewith filed with the Examiner as "Exhibit A."
(Exhibit A. filed with the Examiner as evidence)
He was indebted to me by his promissory note dated April 1st 1886 payable six months after date in the sum of $80.91. which note I file with the examiner as "Exhibit B." (Exhibit B. filed) with the Examiner as Evidence)
He was also indebted to me by his promissory note dated April 1st 1885. payable one year after date in the sum of $88.60 which note I file as "Exhibit C." (Exhibit C. filed with the Examiner as Evidence).
He was also indebted to me by his promissory note dated March 21st 1882 payable six months after date in the sum of $60.00 which note I file as "Exhibit D." ("Exhibit D." filed with the Examiner as evidence)
He was also indebted to me by his open account to May 1st 1899. in the sum of $68.20. which account I file as "Exhibit E." ("Exhibit E" filed with the Examiner as Evidence).
6. Int Did George H. Harman leave any personal estate.
Ans. Very little. there was no administration upon his personal estate, what few things were left the widow disposed of by sale without administration.
7th What title did the said George H. Harman have to the property described by Exhibit No. 1?
Ans. As will be seen by the Exhibit itself George Harman had a claim against the property of $300. with accrued
