Testimony &c.

plaintiffs filed with the Examiner plaintiffs filed with the Examiner Exhibit B." as evidence, and it describes the conveyance of ten acres of land, more or less intended as part of the land described in these proceedings, though it does not specially say so, for a water right and for that purpose only I know that this conveyance was made about 2 years ago.

The property mentioned in Ex. A cannot be divided amongst the parties entitled without loss and injury and it would be the best interest of all parties to have the same sold under a decree of the Court and the proceeds divided.
