

session 1834, ch. 251, to report to his department on or before the 1st day of May next, that they have duly qualified to the commissions they respectively hold, and that they are ready for duty.

Which was read the first, and by special order, the second time, assented to, and sent to the Senate.

Mr. Maulsby, from the committee on grievances and courts of justice, delivered the following report—

The committee on grievances and courts of justice, to whom was referred the order of this house of the 30th of January, to inquire into the expediency of reducing into one the various laws relating to apprentices, have had the same under consideration, and report,

That in their opinion it would be expedient to reduce into one the several laws relating to apprentices, and recommend that a special committee be raised by the house, and charged with reporting a bill for that purpose.

All which is respectfully submitted

I. D. Maulsby, chairman

Of comm. on griev. and courts of jus.

Which was read the first, and by special order the second time, and concurred in.

The Speaker thereupon appointed Messrs Grisfield, Tuck and Perry to compose the committee.

The resolution requiring the clerk of Harford county court to deliver a copy of the acts of Assembly to William B. Stephenson, esq., was sent to the Senate.

Mr. Tuck stated that a vacancy had occurred in the committee on grievances and courts of justice by the absence of the chairman, Mr. Harris, and that the committee had appointed Mr. Maulsby their chairman, he therefore moved the following order—

Ordered, that the existing vacancy in the committee on grievances and courts of justice be supplied by the speaker.

The speaker thereupon appointed Mr. Culbreth on said committee.

Mr. Hardeastle reported a bill entitled, an act relating to coach and gig makers;

Mr. Ely reported a bill entitled, an act to repeal part of an act passed at November session 1798, entitled, an act to establish and incorporate a medical and chirurgical faculty or society in the State of Maryland, and for other purposes;

Mr. Kershner reported a bill entitled, an act incorporating the Evangelical Lutheran Congregation in Hagerstown and its vicinity;
